

REV. ANDRA D'ETTA HOXIE, a native of Belize City, Central America, is a graduate of Belize Technical College (now the University of Belize). She holds a B.S. in Psychology (University of Phoenix), and a Master of Theological Studies, summa cum laude, from the former Evangel Theological Seminary. She accepted Jesus and acknowledged her call to preach at First A.M.E. Church of Manassas, VA. An Itinerant Elder in the African Methodist Episcopal Church, Rev. Hoxie served ten years as a member of the Ministerial Staff of FAME Manassas and two years on the staff of St. Luke A.M.E. Church, Reston, VA. Rev. Hoxie is well known for her passion and dedication to community outreach, with a special emphasis on assisting homeless and vulnerable persons in the community. Rev. Hoxie is passionate about teaching God's Word. For many years she facilitated a weekly Bible Study for women in Prince William County, training and equipping the saints for discipleship.

She has served on the Board of Directors of the American Red Cross, Prince William Chapter. Rev. Hoxie is a former volunteer with ACTS/Turning Points as a peer counselor and facilitator/teacher teaching anger management classes for men. Rev. Hoxie is also a member of the Prince William Chapter of the National Congress of Black Women, Inc. She is a former member of the Elmira/Corning Chapter of the NAACP where she served as the Chairperson of the Freedom Fund Banquet. In March 2020, Rev. Hoxie was appointed as a member of the Prince William County Strategic Plan Development Team (2021-2024).

Rev. Hoxie is an avid reader, who loves to travel, write poetry, and cook (when time permits). She insists that it is impossible to meet Jesus and not tell at least one somebody about the goodness of God. Her favorite Scripture is Psalm 40:1 – I waited patiently on the Lord; and he inclined unto me and heard my cry. When asked she will tell you, “God is just who he says he is – that is sufficient for me.”
