

BRO. BERNARD HAYES

acknowledged a call to preach in 2012 and was licensed as an exhorter in March 2013. Bro. Hayes has been a leader for outreach ministry for more than 15 years. He was the chair of the former Greater Manassas Mentoring

Network and also served as a member of the board of directors for the Prince William Chapter of the American Red Cross. Bro. Hayes leads the Outreach Ministry for Faith AME and teaches the Saturday morning Bible Study for men. A retired military officer, he holds several degrees and is currently a student at Wesley Theological Union pursuing his Master of Divinity. Bro. Hayes' favorite scripture is: "But seek first his kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well. – Matthew 6:33."
